SEATING INFO

SEATING POLICY

Seating is general admission for each and every show, for single ticket buyers and pass holders. Unclaimed pre-purchased tickets will be RELEASED 5 minutes before show time. Late seating will be at the discretion of each production, per the artists' choice—so it's not guaranteed.

Be sure to plan accordingly!

Every person (adults and children ages 2 & up) attending a Fringe performance must have a ticket. Children under age 2 are free. In the event of sold-out performances, children under 2 are expected to sit in their parent's lap. Car seats or carriers will not be allowed to take up seats. Kids Fringe is, of course, free, but please reserve your seats at AtlantaFringe.org in advance for capacity reasons.

WHAT IF I SHOW UP LATE?

All shows in the Atlanta Fringe Festival start ON TIME. We do not hold houses because it would throw the whole schedule off course. We all know Atlanta traffic can be atrocious. Please give yourself plenty of time to get to your venue and park. Most productions perform 5 times; if you miss one showtime, you'll have other opportunities to see it. All sales are final. We do not issue refunds, but you may exchange your ticket for another showtime for the same production.

And now a word from our EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Welcome to the 14th Atlanta Fringe Festival! We are dedicated to presenting bold, independent artists and diverse voices to adventurous audiences who want to discover, engage, and connect with exciting new work. If you're holding this program, that means you're probably one or the other - or both! Thank you for being here. If I may offer some tips for the best Fringe experience?

1. Discover! Be open to the NEW! There's no algorithm curating anything here; it's all up to you. Pick a show at random. Go see something you'd never check out in "normal" life. Talk to a stranger about the show you just saw and see what they've enjoyed. With tickets under $20 and no show longer than an hour, it's super easy to sample and experiment. You may not only discover a new favorite show or artists, but a new favorite performing art form!

2. Connect! Fringe festivals create an amazing energy because everyone is in it together. I call it “Trench Artfare” because you can really bond over all the stuff that makes a Fringe so exciting and so challenging: rushing from one show to the next, bemoaning that you’re going to miss that one production because you just can’t fit it into your schedule, shoving some food in your face between showtimes. Artists, staff, program directors, audiences – we all get it! It creates an instant camaraderie with everyone you meet. Your new best friends await!

3. Enjoy the challenge! Fringes challenge artists with space and time limitations. Fringes challenge audiences to conspiracy-board an exciting but complicated schedule (and arrive on time!). Fringes challenge festival producers to juggle multiple venues' and 50+ different productions' worth of priorities and needs. Fringes challenge everyone involved - that's how we grow, change, become large! As T.S. Eliot once said, "If you aren't in over your head, how do you know how tall you are?"

Welcome to Fringe. Welcome to the trenches. This is gonna be fun!

*ATLANTA FRINGE FESTIVAL FOUNDER

DID YOU KNOW?

Ticket sales only cover 50% of Atlanta Fringe Festival's expenses?

SUPPORT OUR EFFORTS! DONATE TODAY!

So, What Is Fringe?

In 1947 the Edinburgh Arts Festival launched, and several artists who were not invited to participate decided to capitalize on the crowds and set up their own shows in venues just on the outskirts of the festival. A theatre critic wrote, “Some interesting work is happening on the fringes of the festival,” and the Edinburgh Festival Fringe was born.

Now, it sells 2.5 million tickets for over 4,000 registered shows every single year, and there are more than 300 fringe festivals worldwide! Some incredibly popular things were born or gained mainstream attention at fringe festivals, including musicals like Stomp, SIX: The Musical, and Jerry Springer: The Opera; TV shows like Baby Reindeer, Fleabag, Kim's Convenience, and Flight of the Conchords; plays like Rosencrantz and Guildenstern Are Dead; and the Oscar-winning movie The King's Speech.

What Is ATLANTA Fringe?

Attracted by the creative freedom and lack of gatekeeping found at a Fringe festival, independent Atlanta comedy theatre ensemble Twinhead Theatre decided Atlanta needed a Fringe.

We decided to go with the Canadian fringe model: venues and staff provided, lineup uncurated and chosen by lottery, and 100% of ticket sales back to the artists. Our first festival was in 2012, and we have been presenting bold and exciting works by artists from all over the world ever since!

What's with the bee?

When our Design Director was developing our brand identity, she learned that Georgia's state insect is the honey bee. She immediately saw the correlation between the honey bees diligently working together to build their hive, creating something sweet and the work that AFF is doing for the performing arts community. We're BUILDING A HIVE FOR ARTISTS TO THRIVE! (hello, tagline!) So now the Honey Bee proudly represents us wherever we go.

Look how far we've come!

2010 - Our Fringe journey began

2011 - Friendraisers including “Get Your Buzz On” at Sutra Lounge, the first of five “Easter Art Hunts”, and “Big Summer Buzz” at Melvin Gallery (now Ladybird)

2012 - Our First Festival! - Live and Fringe Audio

2013 - Atlanta Fringe Festival wins Creative Loafing’s Best New Trend in the Arts

2017 - We took this year off, but presented Phantasmagoria’s Through the Tales Darkly and produced our first Five/5ths which was The Karate Kid. Ralph Macchio and some of the cast and crew of Cobra Kai loved it!

2020 - Fringe Audio only 🤖

2021 - Virtual Fringe Festival 🤖

2023 - Added Kids Fringe

2024 - Added Street Fringe

2025 - We expanded to a TWO WEEK FESTIVAL

Can't wait to see what happens in our Fringe future!

DONATE!

Since 2012, Atlanta Fringe has connected independent artists to appreciative audiences, and served the Atlanta community with unique and diverse entertainment. We subsidize traditional live-performance producing costs, including venue rentals, marketing and promotions, patron services, and staffing, to allow artists the freedom and opportunity to create and share exciting and original work.

Your donations will go directly to festival costs, including:

- Artist stipends for free programs
- Staffing costs to keep all venues + events running smoothly
- Programmatic costs like supplies, lighting and sound equipment, and venue rentals
- Printing merchandise, festival badges, posters + flyers, and programs
- Marketing costs, including PR services, boosted social media posts, ad buys, and poster/program distribution

These aren't sexy things to pay for, we know, but your contributions are essential to help us keep production costs low for artists and ticket costs accessible for audience members. When you get to the festival and see your donations at work, you'll be happily stunned by the true beauty of our gloriously organized chaos, and you'll know that YOU were a major part of making it real!

Emma Morris Projects • Atlanta GA

I Hope We Never Land is a dance theater work exploring how memory, nostalgia, and our relationship to the natural world shape the present. Through complex partnering, physical phrase work, and improvisation, four dancers embody facets of time: Past, Present, Future, and In-Between. Together, music, personal essays, and movement combine to create a world where time becomes blurred and reality is suspect. When do memories become stories?

SIRENS

Susan Swavely • Atlanta, GA

A young woman, alone in the woods... what could possibly be more dangerous to a group of men? In a play that explores the tension between desire & betrayal and romantic love & sisterhood, SIRENS goes back to the beginning, when myths are still being created. SIRENS draws a line between those who might find a cottage in the woods and think 'witch,' and those who might think 'oh, I'm safe at last.'
